

We read in Philippians 1: 3-5, "I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now."

Thanksgiving is both a time and, in prayer, a practice for remembering, as it is for St Paul in the above verses. It is also for us a time to stop, pause, and consider what God has done, and is still doing. On each and every Sunday, for example, our people who are scattered in congregations in multiple states and provinces from two countries are moved to act on one common thought—to contribute $1 to 1-1-1 Dollar for Missions campaign to further the gospel. This one act shows that the partnership of which Paul speaks is still working.

"And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ." Philippians 1:6
